tropico 5 generalissimo walkthrough. tropico 5 generalissimo. tropico 5 generalissimo mission. tropico 5 generalissimo tips

It's nice to have an additional military that provides elite infantry. The dictator costume is pretty good as well. Overall, worth getting when it goes on sale.. Another one building DLC that Kalypso added just to make a few bucks.. Scenario, OK.

Outfit, who cares.

Building, great but have to wait for ColdWar for it.

Overall it an ok DLC but I would wait for a sale to get it.. Generalissimo is yet another another tiny DLC for Tropico 5. The third one. This time about defending from invansion.

Mission feels unbalanced. It's about surviving three serious US invansion after building up Defence HQ. The thing is, it pretty much tells you to build it up and gives enough money to do so and spend on other things, but then you will not have time to set up economy enough to survive the first wave. Hm, maybe I should have just used Constriction instead of Professional Army and waiting for all those slow high-schoolers. But you aren't forced to build HQ right away, so you can first waste a hour of putting money-making in this big barren island, where all good stuff is in quite a long distance away. And then watch your army steamroll invansions while waiting forever between each wave, daydreaming.

Yea, it could be better.

Building itself, Defence HQ, aka Hexagon, is unique building, which means that you can built only one. It's like Barracks, but soldiers who work there will come out as a single commando, or even spec force if upgraded, unit. Doesn't seem to break balance and no reason not to have one built, due to being unique. I think.. Pretty good DLC. Worth it.. If you love the military aspect of Tropico 5, this is a must buy DLC. The music track which comes with this DLC has a nice catchy tune to it too..

Again, sucks that you don't get an achievement for completing this.

Doesn't take too long to complete.

Not particularly challenging.

To be honest preferred Tropico 3 & 4, more than 5 anyway.

Bought whilst in the sale, definitely not worth paying full price for.

Again a problem of price. As well, the Defense HQ building is ridiculously expensive for providing only one unit of commandos\special forces. This would make it a pretty valuable asset if not for the fact that battles in this game are utter spamfests. Having one unit of elites amongst a sea of infantry may turn a battle, but it's not going to be worth the cost of $17,000 in-game, without upgrade.. Not worth it!. Yes, great little addition, keep the new DLC coming!. Here is my try on this DLC.

I will judge it from an it was free standpoint. not 2.99\00a3 I paid for it.

Also I'm an Sandbox player so there is that to.

Mission or standalone scenario:

I didn't really try the standalone scenario but what I seen it was okey (5/10).

New dynasty avatar accessory or Hat: (cool but only one Hat)

General's Hat okey its cool but you might need to get some other DLC in order to find something it will fit really good on.

New building: Defense HQ \2013 Train elite commando squads ((from Cold wars and forward) the New building well I its big(really big) and it only spawns one elite commando squad when you build it you get an small mission to "specify" your squad as an Paratroopers, riot control\Urban, Mounted(goats) or guerrilla warfare. I picked the Paratroopers or para-glider option did the micro mission and.

+ 10 in efficiency. okey I thought. Paratroopers aren't that much more trained except for how to get out of an perfectly fine airplane when its in the air.

Next invasion occurs squad runs over there... !!WAIT WHAT!! they are Paratroopers why are they running there from the HQ I expected them to jump there or something.

so I suspect that the mission is only pure flavor whit no effect on how the squad actually work afterwards.

My guess is also that all options gives an +10 to efficiency(roughly what you get if you set the budget from 3/5 to 5/5 stars)

so the Building well its cool and if you are a bit creative builder then it probably nice but is it worth it for one squad of elite commandos?

No get an army Base or 3 barracks instead thats much better space wise and from an combat roll wise.. all dlc in this game are \2665\2665\2665\2665ing trash. Great dlc, however to clarify: The Defense HQ is limited to only one. Features a commando squad (same as upgraded one in Palace) which can be upgraded to special forces.. Once again i wish steam had more than a simple thumbs up and thumbs down rating system.

Is the building this small dlc gives you worth it? Maybe. If you are a big time military player like me, then yes. Otherwise no. Is the mission fun? Barely. In this review i simply gave it a thumbs up because i like to use the building as a military oriented player.

In summary only buy if you are a Tropico Fanatic who must own everything Tropico. Who believes he lives on Tropico, believes he's El Presidente. Or. If you are really big into military play. Otherwise stay away even at a discount. I give Generalissimo 6/10 for military players only
